

Osborne Villas, Hove, BN3 2RA

£1,150 PCM

Situated on the lower ground floor of a Victorian period property, well located for all that central Hove has to offer. This apartment benefits from it's own private entrance and comprises a spacious lounge which leads out to a rear patio, separate kitchen, a west facing bedroom and a bathroom with a separate W.C. Only a few minutes' walk from Church Road and King's Esplanade on Hove's seafront the flat is ideally located to enjoy all that this vibrant area has to offer with a huge selection of shops, bars and restaurants to choose from. On the parade of Kingsway are independent shops and cafes including the ever popular Franco's Osteria Deli, Sugardough bakery and Kernel of Hove health food store. Hove mainline station provides convenient commuter links to London and Gatwick and regular bus services travel across the city and up to Devil's Dyke on the South Downs.
